WHEREAS, GG has developed and owns various proprietary software applications, digital platforms, merchant solutions, Food Voucher systems, UPOS/SAAS technologies, business models, operational methodologies, intellectual property, trademarks, know-how, marketing systems and related business infrastructure forming part of the Global Garner Ecosystem;

AND WHEREAS, the Strategic Partner possesses the necessary commercial expertise, business infrastructure, manpower, marketing capabilities, financial resources and distribution network for promotion, implementation and expansion of the Program;

AND WHEREAS, GG intends to appoint the Strategic Partner as its exclusive Strategic Distribution and Business Development Partner for the Territory on the terms and conditions contained herein;

AND WHEREAS, the Strategic Partner has agreed to accept such appointment and undertake the marketing, promotion, merchant acquisition, customer development, business expansion and related activities in accordance with this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, promises and obligations contained herein, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Appointment:

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, GG hereby appoints the Strategic Partner as its exclusive Strategic Distribution, Marketing and Business Development Partner for the promotion, marketing, implementation, distribution and operation of the Program within the Territory.

The appointment shall be for an initial term of Ten (10) years ("Initial Term"), which may thereafter be renewed for successive periods of five (5) years upon mutual written agreement of the Parties. The Strategic Partner hereby accepts such appointment and agrees to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

2. Nature of Appointment and Exclusivity:

The appointment granted under this Agreement is exclusive, irrevocable during the Initial Term (except in cases expressly provided herein), and intended to enable the Strategic Partner to develop, promote and expand the Program throughout the Territory. During the Initial Term, GG shall not, directly or indirectly:

a) appoint any other distributor, reseller, franchisee, master distributor, strategic partner, marketing partner, agent or similar entity for the Program within the Territory;
b) directly market, distribute or commercially exploit the Program within the Territory except through the Strategic Partner;
c) transfer, assign or delegate the exclusive distribution rights granted under this Agreement to any third party;
d) establish any parallel distribution channel within the Territory; or
e) undertake any action that would dilute or adversely affect the exclusivity granted to the Strategic Partner.

Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Agreement, if the Strategic Partner achieves at least one hundred and ninety percent (190%) of the agreed Minimum Order Quantity ("MOQ") or any mutually agreed annual business target during the Initial Term, GG shall not terminate this Agreement, withdraw the exclusivity granted herein, appoint any alternate distributor within the Territory, or otherwise curtail the rights granted to the Strategic Partner solely on grounds of business performance or commercial considerations. Termination during the Initial Term shall only be permissible in cases of:

(i) fraud;
(ii) wilful misconduct;
(iii) material breach of this Agreement remaining unremedied despite written notice and expiry of the applicable cure period;
(iv) insolvency or liquidation of a Party; or
(v) any other ground expressly provided under this Agreement. Nothing contained herein shall prevent GG from servicing enterprise customers, Government departments, Public Sector Undertakings, multinational corporations or strategic accounts specifically identified in Schedule-I, provided that such customers existed prior to the Effective Date or are expressly excluded from the scope of exclusivity by mutual written agreement between the Parties.

3. Territory:

The initial Territory shall comprise the entire Republic of India. Any expansion into international markets shall be mutually agreed in writing. The Strategic Partner shall have the first right of refusal and priority rights to undertake distribution, promotion, and business development activities in overseas markets for overseas expansion relating to the Program.

4. Scope of Rights:

The Strategic Partner shall have the right to appoint merchants, retailers, channel partners, institutional customers and business associates, conduct seminars, exhibitions, conferences, webinars, roadshows and awareness programmes, facilitate merchant onboarding, facilitate customer registration, market subscriptions of the UPOS/SAAS platform, undertake promotional campaigns, establish regional business centres, appoint authorised representatives, appoint sub-distributors with prior written approval of GG, and perform all activities reasonably necessary for business expansion.

5. Nature of Rights:

The rights granted under this Agreement are contractual in nature and do not confer upon Strategic Partner any ownership, equity, shareholding, partnership interest, or proprietary rights in Global Garner or its intellectual property.

6. Exclusivity Protection

GG agrees that it shall not, during the Term of this Agreement:

a. bypass the Strategic Partner within the Territory;
b. appoint another distributor for substantially similar products or services;
c. establish any competing distribution network within the Territory;
d. directly solicit merchants or customers introduced by the Strategic Partner except for technical support obligations; or
e. knowingly undertake any action intended to defeat the commercial purpose of this Agreement.

7. Future Products & Right of First Refusal:

Subject to satisfactory performance and mutual cooperation, Global Garner agrees that Strategic Partner shall be the preferred strategic distribution partner for all future software solutions, business platforms, Food Voucher programs, merchant solutions, digital products, and other commercial offerings developed under the Global Garner ecosystem. Before appointing any third party within the Territory for any substantially similar product or service, Global Garner shall first offer such opportunity to Strategic Partner on commercially reasonable terms.

Any expansion into new products, territories, or verticals shall be governed by mutually agreed commercial terms executed in writing.

8. Commercial Model And Pricing:

The Food Voucher + UPOS/SAAS Combo Package shall be sold at ₹15,000/- plus applicable GST.

Global Garner shall receive ₹10,000/- plus applicable GST against each Combo Package sold, against which it shall provide Food Vouchers worth ₹10,000/- together with the applicable UPOS/SAAS entitlement. Any revision in pricing shall only be made by mutual written agreement.

The balance amount shall remain with Strategic Partner towards marketing, sales promotion, distributor incentives, merchant acquisition, customer support, business development, operational expenditure, administrative costs, and such other lawful purposes as determined by Strategic Partner.

9. Sales Targets:

The Parties acknowledge that the sales milestones are business objectives and not guaranteed commitments. Sales targets shall be reviewed annually. Failure to achieve any target shall not automatically constitute breach of this Agreement. Before taking any action relating to performance, the Parties shall jointly review market conditions, operational support, competition, and other commercial factors.

10. Strategic Partnership Fee:

Strategic Partner shall pay a one-time Strategic Partnership Fee of Rs. 25,00,000/- plus applicable GST. The Partnership Fee represents consideration for the grant of exclusive distribution rights, technology access, ecosystem development, and commercial collaboration under this Agreement and shall not, by itself, confer any ownership, equity, voting rights, partnership interest, or shareholding in Global Garner, except as expressly provided herein.

In the event this Agreement is terminated prior to the expiry of the Initial Term due solely to Global Garner's material breach, default, inability to perform its obligations, or withdrawal of the exclusive rights granted herein, the Strategic Partner shall be entitled to a pro-rata refund of the Partnership Fee corresponding to the unexpired portion of the Initial Term, without prejudice to its right to claim any other remedy available under this Agreement or applicable law.

In recognition of the Strategic Partner's contribution towards the growth and expansion of the Program, the Parties agree that if the Strategic Partner successfully develops and maintains a verified active customer base of One Crore (10,000,000) customers during the Term of this Agreement, Global Garner shall allot or transfer to the Strategic Partner or its nominated entity 20% (Twenty Percent) of the issued and paid-up equity share capital of Global Garner, subject to compliance with the Companies Act, 2013, the Articles of Association of Global Garner, and all applicable laws and regulatory approvals. The Parties shall execute all necessary corporate approvals, resolutions, agreements, filings, and other documents required to give effect to such allotment or transfer. For the purposes of this Clause, a "Verified Active Customer" shall mean a customer duly registered under the Program, who has completed the applicable onboarding requirements, purchased at least one Program package, and whose account remains active in the records maintained under the Program.

11. Obligations of Global Garner:

Global Garner shall provide and maintain the UPOS/SAAS platform and all associated technology, software, and infrastructure necessary for the effective implementation and operation of the Program. GG shall ensure uninterrupted software operations, regular software upgrades, server hosting, cybersecurity measures, database management, payment gateway integration, and overall technical stability of the platform.

GG shall be responsible for merchant onboarding support, activation of subscriptions, honouring the Food Vouchers issued under the Program, and providing timely customer support, technical assistance, user manuals, training materials, and operational guidance to the Strategic Partner. GG shall maintain adequate qualified technical personnel to provide prompt support and shall ensure that its products, software, and services comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and statutory requirements throughout the Term of this Agreement.

12. Obligations of The Strategic Partner:

The Strategic Partner shall actively promote, market, and expand the Program within the Territory by undertaking merchant acquisition, customer development, business promotion, awareness programmes, and other business development initiatives. The Strategic Partner shall conduct its operations in a professional, ethical, and lawful manner and shall obtain, maintain, and comply with all applicable laws, regulations, licences, registrations, approvals, and governmental guidelines relevant to its business activities under this Agreement.

Global Garner shall keep the Strategic Partner reasonably informed of any new or revised legal, regulatory, or compliance requirements specifically relating to the Program, the UPOS/SAAS platform, Food Voucher system, or other products and services provided by Global Garner. Global Garner shall also provide the Strategic Partner with reasonable guidance, necessary documentation, technical information, and operational assistance required to facilitate timely compliance with such requirements. However, the ultimate responsibility for obtaining and maintaining statutory compliances applicable to the Strategic Partner's own business operations shall remain with the Strategic Partner.

The Strategic Partner shall ensure that all promotional communications, advertisements, marketing materials, and representations made on behalf of the Program are truthful, accurate, and duly authorised by Global Garner, and shall refrain from making any false, misleading, deceptive, or unauthorised statements or claims. The Strategic Partner shall facilitate communication between customers and GG wherever reasonably required but shall not be responsible or liable for any technical defects, software failures, system errors, platform downtime, or service deficiencies attributable to GG or its technology.

14. Technical Responsibilities:

GG shall be solely responsible for the development, operation, maintenance, security, and uninterrupted functioning of the UPOS/SAAS platform and all associated technology infrastructure. GG shall maintain the software, servers, cloud infrastructure, APIs, payment gateway integrations, cybersecurity systems, platform security, uptime monitoring, database backups, disaster recovery mechanisms, bug fixes, software upgrades, and all other technical components necessary for the successful operation of the Program. GG shall ensure that adequate technical personnel are available to promptly address and resolve technical issues affecting the Program.

15. Joint Marketing & Business Awareness:

The Parties shall jointly cooperate in planning and executing marketing, branding, promotional and business awareness activities for the Program. Such activities may include seminars, workshops, merchant awareness campaigns, exhibitions, webinars, roadshows, digital marketing campaigns, training sessions, and other promotional initiatives aimed at expanding the business ecosystem. Each Party shall act in good faith and use commercially reasonable efforts to increase customer awareness, merchant participation, and overall business growth.

16. Training & Business Support:

For a period of twelve (12) months from the Effective Date, GG shall provide qualified trainers, faculty members, technical experts, and business presenters for conducting awareness programmes, training sessions, workshops, and promotional events without charging any faculty, consultancy, or professional fees. During such period, GG shall bear all travel, boarding, lodging, and accommodation expenses of its representatives attending such programmes.

Upon expiry of the initial twelve (12) month period, any further training programmes or awareness sessions requested by the Strategic Partner shall be conducted on mutually agreed commercial terms, including faculty charges, travel expenses, accommodation, and other incidental costs.

17. Confidentiality & Non-Disclosure:

Each Party acknowledges that, during the course of this Agreement, it may receive confidential and proprietary information belonging to the other Party, including business information, financial information, customer data, merchant information, pricing, software, source code, databases, trade secrets, marketing strategies, technical know-how, and other commercially sensitive information ("Confidential Information"). Each Party agrees to maintain the confidentiality of such Confidential Information and shall not disclose, reproduce, copy, publish, or use the same for any purpose other than the performance of this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party, except where disclosure is required under applicable law or pursuant to the order of a competent court or statutory authority. The obligations contained in this Clause shall survive the expiry or termination of this Agreement for a period of five (5) years.

18. Data Security & Database Ownership:

GG shall implement and maintain appropriate administrative, physical, organisational, and technical safeguards to protect all data hosted on its servers against unauthorised access, misuse, disclosure, alteration, loss, destruction, cyber-attacks, or security breaches. GG shall comply with all applicable laws relating to information security and personal data protection.

The Parties acknowledge and agree that all Direct Seller data, merchant information, customer information, transaction records, reports, business analytics, and other business-related data generated through the operations of the Strategic Partner shall remain the exclusive property of the Strategic Partner. GG shall act only as the technology provider and data processor for such information and shall not, without the prior written consent of the Strategic Partner, disclose, transfer, assign, sell, commercially exploit, or permit any third party to access such data except to the extent necessary for providing the services contemplated under this Agreement or as required by applicable law.

GG shall immediately notify the Strategic Partner of any actual or suspected cyber incident, data breach, unauthorised access, or security compromise affecting such data and shall take all reasonable steps to mitigate the consequences thereof. Upon expiry or termination of this Agreement, GG shall provide the Strategic Partner with a complete export of all business-related data in a mutually agreed electronic format and shall permanently delete all copies retained by it, except where retention is required by applicable law.

19. Intellectual Property Rights:

Each Party shall retain all right, title, and interest in and to its respective intellectual property, including its trademarks, trade names, logos, copyrights, software, databases, business methods, marketing materials, confidential information, proprietary systems, know-how, and other intellectual property rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as transferring, assigning, licensing, or creating any ownership or proprietary interest in the intellectual property of either Party, except as expressly agreed in writing.

Each Party shall respect, preserve, and protect the intellectual property rights of the other Party and shall not, without the prior written consent of the owner, use, copy, reproduce, modify, distribute, sublicense, assign, reverse engineer, commercially exploit, or otherwise deal with the other Party's intellectual property except to the extent necessary for the performance of this Agreement. Upon the expiry or termination of this Agreement, each Party shall immediately cease using the other Party's intellectual property and shall return or destroy all related materials, unless otherwise required by law or mutually agreed in writing.

20. Mutual Indemnity:

Each Party shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the other Party, its directors, officers, employees, representatives, successors, and permitted assigns from and against all losses, liabilities, claims, damages, penalties, costs, expenses, and reasonable legal fees arising out of or resulting from any breach of this Agreement, negligence, wilful misconduct, fraud, violation of applicable laws, infringement of intellectual property rights, or any act or omission attributable to the indemnifying Party. Neither Party shall be liable for any claim, loss, or damage arising solely from the acts, omissions, negligence, or default of the other Party.

21. Term And Termination:

This Agreement shall remain in force for the Initial Term and thereafter may be renewed in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Either Party may terminate this Agreement by giving not less than ninety (90) days' prior written notice to the other Party. In the event of any alleged breach, the aggrieved Party shall first issue a written notice specifying the nature of the breach and provide the defaulting Party a cure period of thirty (30) days, or such longer period as may be reasonably required depending upon the nature of the breach. Termination shall take effect only if the breach remains unremedied upon expiry of the applicable cure period.

Upon expiry or termination of this Agreement, the Parties shall cooperate in good faith to ensure an orderly transition of the business, including settlement of accounts, return or destruction of Confidential Information, transfer of business-related data belonging to the Strategic Partner, and completion of all outstanding contractual obligations.

22. Business Continuity During Legal Proceedings:

The Parties agree that the existence of any bona fide civil, regulatory, or governmental proceeding against either Party shall not, by itself, constitute a ground for termination of this Agreement, provided that the affected Party continues to perform its obligations under this Agreement and such proceedings do not prohibit or materially impair the performance of the Agreement.

In the event that either Party is temporarily unable to perform certain obligations due to such proceedings, the Parties shall cooperate in good faith to ensure continuity of the business. Where legally permissible and mutually agreed in writing, the affected Party may nominate an affiliate, group entity, or any person authorised by its Board of Directors through an appropriate Power of Attorney or other legally valid authorisation to manage or perform the operational responsibilities under this Agreement for such temporary period. Such nomination shall not affect the ownership, management, or decision-making powers of the affected Party unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing.

Neither Party shall terminate this Agreement solely on account of the existence of such proceedings unless:

(i) the proceedings materially and adversely affect the performance of this Agreement,
(ii) continuation of the Agreement becomes unlawful, or
(iii) the Parties mutually agree otherwise.

23. Governing Law And Dispute Resolution:

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. The Parties shall first endeavour to resolve any dispute, difference, or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement through good faith negotiations. If the dispute remains unresolved for a period of thirty (30) days, the Parties shall attempt to resolve the same through mediation.

If mediation fails, the dispute shall be finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as amended from time to time. The arbitration shall be conducted by a sole arbitrator mutually appointed by the Parties. The seat and venue of arbitration shall be Ahmedabad, Gujarat, and the proceedings shall be conducted in the English language. Subject to the arbitration provisions contained herein, the courts at Ahmedabad, Gujarat, shall have exclusive jurisdiction in respect of matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement.

24. Miscellaneous:

a) Entire Agreement: This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior discussions, negotiations, understandings, representations, and agreements, whether oral or written.

b) Amendments: No amendment, modification, or waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by the duly authorised representatives of both Parties.

c) Assignment: Neither Party shall assign or transfer its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of the other Party, except to its affiliate or successor entity as part of a merger, restructuring, or business reorganisation, provided that such assignment does not adversely affect the rights of the other Party.

d) Severability: If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

e) Waiver: Failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right or remedy under this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of such right or remedy.

g) Counterparts: This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument.
